Love In Town. They had no partings in the wood, No meetings in the lonely lane; Beside the sea they never stood, Nor watched the sunset after rain. Their pathway was the busy street, Their trysting place the office stair; And yet I know joy more complete Did never visit mortal pair.

And why should rustic love alone
Be decked with all poetic art?
These dull, gray city walks have known
The beating of a Nation's heart.
The weary workers come and go,
The secret of each soul is dumb;
Yet still at times a radiant glow
Across their wayworn lives may come.

And these, my happy lovers, knew
Hard toil, small wage, and humble fare;
The skies they saw were never blue,
But love made gladness everywhere.
His step upon the office floor
Was sweet to her as robin's soug;
Her face, that passed the open door,
For him made sunshine all day long.

The Tailor's Mistake.

"John!" There were tears in her eyes as she spoke. "Yes, my dear."

"I think it's just too mean for anything." "What is. Mary ?" With an effort she choked back

"My bloomers," she said. "What about them?" he ask-

"I sent them to your tailor to be cleaned," she explained, "and

-and-"Well, what did he do?" "He-he-creased them."

And she tearfully held up a pair of creased bloomers for his inspection.-Chicago Post.

Hair Tonic.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: It affords me freat pleasure to call the attention of the public to my Yale's Hair Tonic, which is the first and only remedy known to chemistry which ostilvely turns gray hair back to its original dor without dye. I personally indorse its tion and give the public my solemn guarance that it has been tested in every conceivable way, and has proved itself the only Hair specific. It stops hair-falling immediately nd creates a luxurious growth. Contains no njurious ingredient, It is not sticky or greasy; on the contrary, it makes the hair soft, youth-uff, fiffy, keeps it in curl and removes dand-uff. For gentlemen and ladies with hair a little gray, streaked gray, entirely gray and with BALD HEADS, it is specially recommended.
